

HAVE YOU WITNESSED SOMEONE DUMPING HAZARDOUS MATERIALS?

DO YOU HAVE KNOWLEDGE OF AN ILLEGAL CONNECTION TO THE TOWN'S STORM DRAINAGE SYSTEM?

HAVE YOU SEEN SERIOUS SOIL EROSION FROM A CONSTRUCTION SITE FLOWING TO A SURFACE WATER BODY OR A TOWN CATCH BASIN?

PLEASE CALL AND REPORT IT!

The following phone numbers are just some of the appropriate numbers to call to report potential damage to our environment:

For issues involving hazardous materials dumping or a spill:

- Call the Stow Fire Department at 978-897-4537,
- And the Emergency Response section at MassDEP at their toll-free 24-hour number: 888-304-1133.
- Stow Board of Health 978-897-4592

For issues involving the town's storm drainage system:

- Stow Highway Department 978-897-8071

For issues involving erosion from construction sites:

- Stow Building Department 978-897-2193
- Stow Planning Department 978-897-5098
- Stow Highway Department 978-897-8071
- Stow Conservation Commission 978-897-8615

To report non-emergencies after normal town business hours, call the Police Department at: 978-897-4545, and the dispatcher will relay your message to the appropriate party.

IN THE EVENT OF AN EMERGENCY SITUATION, CALL 911

If you see, hear about, or even suspect activity that you believe is against the law and placing people's health or natural resources at risk, call the MassDEP Environmental Strike Force at: 1-888-VIOLATE (1-888-846-5283).

For information on the Environmental Strike Force visit the MassDEP website at www.mass.gov/dep/about/callnow.htm