

UPCOMING RANDALL LIBRARY EVENTS!!

Preschool Story Times at the Randall Library Wednesdays and Fridays @ 10:30am- Come to the Randall Library and enjoy a fun story time with a craft and snack after the readings. This is a great way to make friends for both parents and children.

Early Literacy Workshops for Pre-schoolers, Every 2nd Friday of the month 10:30am- Cynthia Maxfield, the Early Childhood Coordinator of the Nashoba Community Partnership for Children, will be at the Randall Library to present to children and parents fun activities and games to promote early literacy skills in pre-school aged children.

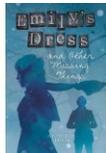

Wednesday @ 12:00pm and every 2nd Friday of the month @ 10:30 am-SAPN Meeting-The Randall Library is proud to offer a room upstairs to the SAPN (Stow Area Parents Network) for this meeting. Focused for caregivers of infants, this get-together is for caregivers to meet and get to know others with infants in the area to swap stories and hang out and play

Reading with the Reading Dogs! Tuesdays from 4:30-5:30pm- Come to the Randall Library and enjoy some quality time reading to Emma, Logan or Herbie the Randall Library reading dogs! This is a great opportunity for children to experience the fun and rewards of reading to a "non-judgmental audience" and practicing their reading with the comfort of a warm, furry friend to listen to them. Sign-up in advance is required and the sign-up sheets are at the circulation desk in the library.

Thursday, April 18, 2013, 7:00pm-In honor of National Poetry Month the Randall Library in Stow will be having two distinguished poets visit the library and speak about their work. Rodney Wittwer and Donna Johnson will be at the Randall Library so please join us for refreshments and poetry readings and have the opportunity to speak to Ms. Johnson and Mr. Wittwer about their writing process.

Wednesday, April 24, 2013 @ 3:00pm, -YA Author Kate Burak Reading from Her Book-Emily's Dress and Other Missing Things.- In honor of National Poetry month the Randall Library in Stow is proud to welcome renowned author Kate Burak to the Library where she will be meeting with young adults to speak about and read from her riveting book Emily's Dress and Other Missing Things. Come meet the author as she speaks about her writing process and how she wove the feeling and elements of Emily Dickinson's poetry into her fascinating YA book.

Saturday, April 27th, 2013 @ 10:30am-Ed Morgan, "The Music Man"- Music Performance - Come enjoy an interactive sing-along for children ages 1 to 99 at the Randall Library in Stow with Ed Morgan, "The Music Man". Learn new ways to connect with your family through songs. This family friendly performance will have everyone up moving, dancing and singing. We hope to see you there. This program is supported in part by a grant from the Stow Cultural Council, a local agency supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

Saturday, April 27, 2013, 12:00pm-Justine St. John and Wilbur the Zucchini Eating Dragon are coming to the Randall Library!- Do you have a picky eater in your house? Well you are not alone and so you should come meet Justine St. John when she visits the Randall Library in Stow to read from her charming children's book Wilbur the Zucchini Eating Dragon. We will be doing dragon crafts and having some healthy snacks available to temp all picky eaters, both human and dragon!

Book Donations for the Randall Library Friends Association Book Sale- We will begin accepting donations for our upcoming book sale at the Randall Library in Stow beginning on April 1st (the book sale will be happening in May). Here is your chance to start a little spring cleaning and help out a worthy cause at the same time. Donations of gently used children's and adult books (paperback and hardcover), DVDs, CDs, and books on CD will be most welcome. We will not be taking magazines, textbooks, cassettes VHS tapes or items in bad repair. Please bring your donations to the Randall Library circulation desk.
