Old business

Coordinating artwork for Community Center

-Kristen Donovan will have the first art show in the community center

- Angela met with her and gave her the cables and hooks
- Angela has developed a sign-up sheet for the cables and hooks
- She will set up this weekend
- Publicity on fb and posters in community center
- Spreadsheet of each month on google drive, under SCC Organized Events, Community Art Exhibit Process
- Courtney is the one to refer people to if they want to organize a reception
- We can reach out to the newspapers and the Senior Scoop to let people know about the revolving art show. Jenni will write up some copy for Angela to review.
- Angela will let artists know how to put messages on the sign by the library to advertise their shows.

Update on Talent Show

- Alex had little response from all facilities after repeated requests to come look at the possible venues and their facilities.
- We are now looking toward next fall.
- We need to find the right contact for each site.
- Possibility of partnering with an organization like Fugitive Productions
- Also possibly summer outdoors

Update on finances and reimbursements

Reimbursements in process: only two outstanding reimbursement requests

New business

- Discussed and voted on MCC grant applications
- Process for notifying applicants: Hector is drafting denial emails. Then wait 2 weeks before sending out award notifications.

To do: Jenni will reup the mail check signups, Hector will do award letters, Alex will work on facilities.
