

DRAFT

EDIC Charge

Under the direction of the Stow Select Board, the Stow Economic Development and Industrial Commission will develop and implement an Economic Development Plan for the Town of Stow for anticipated inclusion in the upcoming Comprehensive Plan update. Working with the business community and Stow residents, the Economic Development and Industrial Commission will develop a community engagement strategy, and gain community data, information and perspectives to inform the economic development plan.