I. GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS AND GUIDELINES

As part of our commitment to earning the trust of the citizenry so essential to policing our community, it is essential that police professionals hold themselves to an exemplary standard in the area of domestic violence.

A pro-active approach must focus on victim safety. The touchstone must be a policy of “zero tolerance” of acts of domestic violence by members of this department.

While prioritizing the safety of victims, this policy is designed to address prevention through hiring and training practices, provide direction to supervisors for intervention when warning signs of domestic violence are evident, institutionalize a structured response to reported incidents of domestic violence involving employees, and offer direction for conducting the subsequent administrative and criminal investigations. Components of the policy include:

1. Prevention and Training;
2. Early Warning and Intervention;
3. Incident Response Protocols;

4. Victim Safety and Protection; and
5. Post-Incident Administrative and Criminal Decisions.

II. POLICY

It is the policy of this department:

- B. Not to hire or retain individuals that have a history or a documented propensity for domestic violence, elder abuse, child abuse, sexual assault or stalking;
- C. To provide on-going training to every member on all forms of domestic violence and the department's zero tolerance policy;

In determining the proper course of administrative action, a department shall consider factors including the level of danger an employee poses as indicated by the outcome of the danger assessment of the employee, the employee's history of compliance with departmental rules, prior written or verbal threats, history of aggressive behaviors, and existence of an alcohol or substance abuse problem.
- e. If the accused employee is assigned enforcement duties while the administrative and/or criminal investigations are under way, those duties should not include response to domestic violence calls.
